Château d'Yquem 2009 Sauternes

DOLCE BY FAR NIENTE 2007 LATE HARVEST SÉMILLON-SAUVIGNON BLANC

This strikingly sweet late-harvest dessert wine—a California Sauternes-style blend of Sémillon and Sauvignon Blanc—is grown in the Coombsville region of Napa Valley and aged for 30 months. This delightful vintage displays flavors of fig, tapioca, and orange peel. ($130)

DOMAINE D'EUGENIE CLOS DE VOUGEOT 2010 GRAND CRU

François Pinault, owner of Château Latour in Bordeaux, bought Burgundy's Domaine Engel and, beginning with the 2006 vintage, has continued the tradition of unparalleled excellence with Domaine d'Eugenie. ($260)

DOMAINE FOURRIER 2011 GRIOTTE-CHAMBERTIN

Domaine Fourrier owns vineyards within Gevrey-Chambertin, Morey-Saint-Denis, Chambolle-Musigny, and Clos de Vougeot. Today, Jean-Marie Fourrier, who has been at the helm of the domaine since 1994, is considered to be the modern master of Chambertin. ($700)

DOMAINE LAROCHE LES CLOS 2009 CHABLIS

Since the ninth century, the monks of the Abbey of Saint Martin have grown grapes on this grand cru vineyard in the Chablis region of Burgundy. As this scintillating white attests once again, Les Clos is unquestionably the greatest vineyard in Chablis. ($109)

DOMAINE MARQUIS D'ANGERVILLE CLOS DES DUCS 2010 VOLNAY

The rich limestone soils of Domaine d'Angerville's vineyards in this region of Burgundy have made Jacques d'Angerville's Volnays—and in particular the high-elevation Clos des Ducs—one of all Burgundy's most coveted Pinot Noirs. ($260)

DOMAINE PAUL PERNOT 2011 BÂTARD-MONTRACHET GRAND CRU

Paul Pernot and his sons, Paul and Michel, create stellar wines in Puligny-Montrachet, including this Grand Cru, from vineyards that have been in the family for more than 200 years. This wine has power and flavors of uncommon persistence. ($200)

DOMAINE PEGAU 2010 CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE CUVÉE DA CAPO

Displaying the signature Châteauneuf-du-Pape characteristics—including a deep purple color and substantial bouquet garni, smoky spice, blackberry, and kirsch essences—this full-bodied, rich, and masculine wine demands to be paired with a perfect steak for full enjoyment. ($440)

DOMAINE PIERRE USSEGLIO ET FILS 2010 CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE CUVÉE DE MON AÏEUL

This bold Châteauneuf-du-Pape, which is from the estate's finest vineyards in the southern part of the appellation, features signature notes of blueberry, lavender, smoke, and licorice. ($115)

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CÔTÉ 2010 CORTON

Only the second vintage from the greatest producer in Burgundy, this wine is delicious and, unfortunately for oenophiles, extremely rare. ($1,200)

DOMINUS ESTATE 2010 NAPA VALLEY

Owned by Christian Moueix, who oversees wine production at Château Pétrus and Château Trotanoy in Bordeaux's Pomerol, this Napa Valley estate yields a Bordeaux-style blend, the elegance, subtlety, and velvety texture of which pay homage to its French roots. ($185)

DONELAN 2010 SYRAH OBSIDIAN VINEYARD

Featuring flavors of dark chocolate, blackberry, blueberry, cassis, and candied cherry enhanced by a touch of peppery spice, this intense red is fantastic with grilled beef or lamb. ($108)

DÖNNHOFF 2010 RIESLING NIEDERHAUSER HERMANNSHÖHLE

DUMOL 2011 CHARDONNAY RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

Many people have stated DuMOL is one of the superstar sources of tremendous Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, and one would certainly be pressed to make an argument to the contrary. This exclusive producer grows these Burgundian varietals, as well as Syrah and Viognier, on sustainable vineyard sites in the Sonoma Coast and Russian River Valley regions. Regardless of the grape variety, however, the label's wines quickly sell out, year after year. ($60)

E. GUIGAL 2009 CÔTE-RÔTIE LA MOULINE

This wine embodies the nuances and complexities of the Côte-Rôtie like no other, weaving rich espresso and tobacco notes with lush cherries and raspberries, licorice, and a dusty hint of lavender. One sip explains why this was the wine of the vintage for that region. ($565)
