

KUMEU RIVER

2007 Hunting Hill Chardonnay

93 points, Highly Recommended

WINE SPECTATOR

"Bright and jazzy, showing lime-accented pineapple, with hints of tobacco and star fruit weaving through the long, elegant finish." Harvey Steiman, November 15, 2009

WINE ENTHUSIAST

"Kumeu River boasts a bevy of Burgundian-styled Chards, and the 2007 Hunting Hill was my favorite of this year's crop." Joe Czerwinski, July 2010

WINE ENTHUSIAST

"Smoky and fruity upfront, reminiscent of wood-grilled white peaches, but tinged with hints of toasted hazelnut and pineapple as well. This is full-bodied yet reined in by the intense, citrus-zest finish." Joe Czerwinski, July 2010

"In my opinion the best Chardonnays in New Zealand come from the Kumeu River Estate."
