

“Perhaps the finest portfolio of Schramsberg sparkling wines I have tasted to date...”

Schramsberg Vineyards
2002 Reserve

93 points

“Even more impressive is the 2002 Reserve...Frothy notes of pears, white peaches, currants, quince and hints of brioche and caramelized nuts provide a wonderful entry on the palate. Medium to full-bodied, fresh, well-defined and crisp, while it is built to last, I would still recommend drinking it over the next several years.”

Schramsberg Vineyards
2007 Brut Rosé

92 points

“A sensational effort, the 2007 Brut Rosé offers a beautiful light salmon/pink color as well as a terrific nose of framboise/kirsch and strawberries. The wine hits the palate with freshness, lots of tiny, well-defined bubbles, medium body and a fresh, long finish. This beauty is a top-notch dry rosé sparkling wine.”

Schramsberg Vineyards
2007 Blanc de Blancs

91 points

“Perhaps the finest portfolio of Schramsberg sparkling wines I have tasted to date, these beauties include the outstanding, frothy 2007 Blanc de Blancs, which reveals notes of brioche, white currants and lemon blossoms. Medium-bodied with persistent effervescence and excellent acidity, it should drink nicely for several years or more.”
