2003 CHÂTEAU CLARKE

BARON EDMOND DE ROTHSCHILD

LISTRAC-MEDOC

WINEENTHUSIAST

"With the huge investment of the Edmond de Rothschild family, it is no surprise that this is the most powerful Lustrac wine. This is rich, hugely dense, and very ripe. The tannins are more dusty and soft than usual Bordeaux, but that is the year. Vanilla and grilled almonds show through as the wine finishes. A successful wine that should age well."

– Roger Voss, May 2006

THE STORY

Château Clarke takes its name from the Irish family who bought this estate in 1771. After more than two centuries of wine growing tradition and successive owners, the property was purchased by Baron Edmond de Rothschild in 1973. The vineyard was completely restructured and massive investments were undertaken in order to renovate buildings and improve wine making and storage facilities. With a passion for excellence and the best things in life, the Baron made Clarke a benchmark for the whole region.

TASTING NOTES

Chateau Clarke 2003 is a beautiful crimson color with a deep purple rim. Both intense and complex, the nose displays fresh fruit aromas (blackcurrant and black cherry) and elegant oaky nuances, as well as hints of menthol and liquorice. The wine starts out round and straightforward on the palate. It goes on to show how serious it is thanks to a rich, concentrated and velvety tannic texture along with beautiful acidity that provides balance and freshness. This wine has excellent ageing potential with a suggested drinking window to 2023.
