

HYDE DE VILLAINÉ

2017 CHARDONNAY, HYDE VINEYARD,
CARNEROS, NAPA VALLEY

Wine Spectator

“Powerfully structured, with ripe citrus accents to the fresh white fruit and spice flavors, supported by ample acidity. Hints of tropical fruit emerge midpalate, leading to a finish that shows savory richness. Best from 2022 through 2027.”

— Kim Marcus, April 2020

“The 2017 Chardonnay Hyde Vineyard is a blend of Calera and Wente clones, which, along with the decision to pick early, yields a Chardonnay with distinctly salty, saline notes that give the wine energy, tension and persistence. Orchard fruit, white flowers, mint and white pepper add striking aromatic top notes. The 2017 is quite understated, but it is also just sublime... It is pure class.”

— Antonio Galloni, January 2020

“Wonderful, juicy white with cooked pineapple, praline and biscuit. Some apricots. Full-bodied, tangy and edgy with lots of energetic fruit. Focused and lively. Minerality is the word. Drink or hold.” — James Suckling, January 2020
