ABOUT THE WINERY

Feudo Montoni has been producing top-quality wines on its historic grounds since 1469. The winery is currently overseen by Fabio Sireci, the third generation of a family dedicated to producing the most refined expressions of this long-cultivated terroir. Located in the heart of Sicily and planted in sand and clay on high elevation, the vines of Feudo Montoni have been cultivated using the Sireci family's traditional organic methods for generations and produces many of Sicily's most celebrated 100% indigenous varietals in single-vineyard sites.

ABOUT THE WINE

Fornelli is the name of the cru from which the grapes hail. The name has its origins in the ancient ovens, called "fornelli" where clay present in the soil was cooked to create anfore in which wine was contained, jars where oil was stored, vases, ornamental plates and bricks for construction.

WINEENTHUSIAST

"Aromas of white rose, citrus zest and honeydew take center stage in this crisp white. These tones follow over to the savory palate along with apricot, green melon, lemon rind and a mineral note. Bright acidity keeps it refreshing and balanced."
