

2017 CASCINA NUOVA BAROLO DOCG

96 POINTS | WINE ENTHUSIAST | Kerin O’Keefe, July 2021

“Truffle, wild berry, rose and baking spice aromas come to the forefront along with a balsamic whiff of menthol. Delicious and smooth, the full-bodied palate doles out juicy black cherry, crushed raspberry, blood orange and licorice set against tightly knit, refined tannins.”

95 POINTS | JAMESSUCKLING.COM | James Suckling, April 2021

“Attractive dried strawberry with cherry and tar on the nose. Full-bodied with powerful tannins that are dusty and intense. Very flavorful and long. Solid as a rock.”

93 POINTS | JEB DUNNUCK | Audrey Frick, May 2021

“This is perfumed with ripe cherry, licorice, tar, and dried roses. The palate is ripe and refreshing, with a fairly classic build noted by red plum, tobacco leaf, and turned earth. This wine is beautiful and inviting out of the gates.”

91 POINTS | VINOUS | Antonio Galloni, February 2021

“An attractive wine to drink now and over the next decade or so. Bright red-toned fruit, crushed rose petal and mint open in the glass.”

17 POINTS | JANCISROBINSON.COM | Walter Speller, December 2020

“Just mid ruby. A subtle, balsamic, lifted nose that is a little closed and with savoury, mineral notes. Opens up with aeration to pure cherry fruit. Focused, concentrated cherry fruit with a rich layer of intense, powdery tannins. Very elegant, with real freshness and concentration at the same time.”

JAMESSUCKLING.COM

Jancis Robinson.com

JEB DUNNUCK

Antonio Galloni
vinoUS
explore all things wine

WINEENTHUSIAST

2017 RAVERA BAROLO DOCG

98 POINTS | WINE ENTHUSIAST | Kerin O’Keefe, July 2021

“Made by the estate that put this celebrated cru on the map, and showing an enviable combination of elegance and power, this stunning wine opens with aromas of wild berries, underbrush, dark spice and balsamic notes of cedar and new leather. The tense, savory palate is loaded with youthful energy, showing succulent Marasca cherry, raspberry, cinnamon and star anise framed in tightly knit, refined tannins and surprisingly bright acidity for the vintage. A mineral note suggesting iron adds depth to the close.”

97 POINTS | JEB DUNNUCK | Audrey Frick, May 2021

“The 2017 Barolo Ravera makes a statement with its intense aromas of licorice, kirsch, pipe tobacco, and spice. Revealing a balanced and chiseled structure, the palate conveys dried raspberry, blood orange, and dried herbs. A great wine from the 2017 vintage, it feels like it will hold up to the test of time.”

94 POINTS | JAMESSUCKLING.COM | James Suckling, April 2021

“Cherry and candied strawberry with flowers and some dried earth. Full-bodied, layered and chewy. Lots of wet earth and mushroom to the red fruit.”

92 POINTS | VINOUS | Antonio Galloni, February 2021

“The 2017 Barolo Ravera is a beautiful, precise wine. Bright acids and veins of tannin give the 2017 terrific energy that carries all the way through to the finish. Crushed flowers, sweet red berry fruit, chalk, white pepper and spice all open with a bit of coaxing. This is very nicely done.”

17.5 POINTS | JANCISROBINSON.COM | Walter Speller, December 2020

“Mid ruby with the beginning of orange tinges. Glorious nose of perfumed, intensely lifted cherry. Hints of black pepper and mineral stony notes. Compact, embryonic and concentrated fruit on the palate with bags of powdery tannins and succulent acidity. Great balance and length.”

WILSON DANIELS
SINCE 1978

Imported by Wilson Daniels | Napa, California | wilsondaniels.com