A WINEGROWING LEGACY SINCE 1870

FAMILIA
TORRES

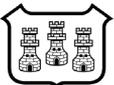

The deep-rooted legacy of Familia Torres dates back to the 16th century and spans five generations of grape growing tradition. Bodegas Torres, situated in Vilafranca del Penedès, was founded 150 years ago, in 1870. Driving the family business through the ages is a time-honored respect for land, culture and pursuit for continuous innovation. The approach to winemaking has always been focused on terroir-driven wines that showcase the unique vineyard expression of historical estates, as well as the recovery of indigenous Spanish varieties. Since 2008, Familia Torres has taken active steps to combat the climate emergency, implementing adaptation and mitigation measures to reduce its carbon emissions. Familia Torres has a historical connection to Penedès, Conca de Barberà, Priorat, and Costers del Segre, but now its presence extends to vineyards and wineries in the preeminent Spanish wine regions of Rioja, Ribera del Duero, Rueda, and Rías Baixas.

HISTORY

Familia Torres is Spain's largest family-owned producer of premium wine. In 1870, Jaime Torres Vendrell and his brother Miguel founded Bodegas Torres. Juan Torres (nephew and heir to Jaime Torres) expanded the business within Spain quite considerably including the family's first production of brandy. With his passing in 1932, Juan left the family business to his son Miguel Torres Carbó. After confiscation, disruption and even winery destruction during the Spanish Civil War, Miguel rebuilt the business and as early as the 1950's decided to concentrate on selling wine in bottle rather than in bulk. Miguel A. Torres (son; 4th generation) studied oenology in Dijon and returned to Spain with a desire to make high-quality wine at home. He joined the winery in 1962 and immediately modernized viticulture and winemaking techniques. His concerns about climate change and the environment have been recognized internationally. Familia Torres is currently overseen by Miguel Torres Maczassek of the fifth generation, who is revamping the winery's successful business model. His focus on the best estates and top wines has resulted in significant investment in these wineries. The winery has removed its Torres three towers logo from its globally popular value wines, reserving the Torres name for distinctive wines from the family's native region of Catalunya. Outside of their home base they are focusing on estate-bottled wines and using modern technology to create the best expression of traditional grapes from Spain's other historical regions. Bodegas Torres was, is and always will be a family-owned and self-financed winery. In control of its own destiny, the winery embraces the present with enthusiasm while looking ahead to the future.

Mas la Plana

A 1979 blind tasting in Paris, the Gault-Millau Wine Olympics, placed French Cabernets such as Châteaux Latour against newcomers including Torres. The wine from Mas la Plana vineyard triumphed over some of the world's most iconic. This deserved recognition and put Penedès on the map as benchmark quality for Cabernet.

APPELLATION: DO Penedès

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
100% Cabernet Sauvignon

AGING: 18 months in French oak barrels (85% new)

Perpetual

A wine deep rooted in history reflecting the family's commitment to the region of Priorat. Perpetual is crafted from 80 year-old Garnacha and Cariñena vineyards. A wine born to defeat time.

APPELLATION: DOQ Priorat

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Cariñena and Garnacha

AGING: 18 months in new French oak barrels

Reserva Real

A wine created in honor of his majesty, King Don Juan Carlos, who visited the winery in 1995. Fruit is hand selected from the small Les Arnes vineyard which is also home to a beautiful 11th century Romanesque hermitage. Considered one of the most exclusive, limited-production wines in Spain.

APPELLATION: DO Penedès

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc

AGING: 18 months in new French oak barrels

Mas de la Rosa

Originating from a Torres family-owned vineyard comprising 80-year-old Cariñena and Garnacha vines. Reaching almost 500 meters (1,640 feet) at its highest point, the vineyard is only accessible by a narrow, winding, unpaved road. The selection of the most prized fruit from this truly remarkable vineyard casts inspiration for this iconic and limited bottling.

APPELLATION: DOQ Priorat

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Garnacha tinta and Cariñena

AGING: 100% French oak barrels for 16 months

Milmanda

Milmanda was historically part of a route of medieval castles that sheltered Christians during the period of the Reconquista. The Torres family acquired ownership of the land in 1979 and restored the castle to its historical glory. Chardonnay vines were planted in 1980 surrounding the castle to produce this expressive single vine-yard wine.

APPELLATION: DO Conca de Barberà

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
100% Chardonnay

AGING: 4-6 months in 300-liter oak barrels (60% new); followed by 10 months lees aging in vats

Salmos

In 1996, the Torres Family began planting vineyards on the black slate-like “Licorella” soils of Priorat. This wine is considered a tribute to the Carthusian monks who planted the first grapevines in Priorat in 1095.

APPELLATION: DOQ Priorat

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Cariñena, Garnacha and Syrah

AGING: 14 months in French oak barrels (25% new)

Grans Muralles

The Grans Muralles vineyard is planted at the foot of the Cistercian Wall that protected the Poblet Monastery during the Mercenary Wars. Vine fruit has been cultivated on the site since the 13th century. The current vineyard was replanted 20 years ago, resurrecting rare varieties thought to be nearly extinct. Hallmark characters of the lesser known Querol and Garró grapes provoke rustic layers of bay leaf, balsamic and cracked black peppercorn.

APPELLATION: DO Conca de Barberà

VARIETAL COMPOSITION: Garnacha, Monastrell, Querol, Cariñena and Garró

AGING: Aged in new French oak – time varies per varietal with average of 18 months

Purgatori

The Purgatori estate has 200 ha (494 acres) of organic vineyards, spread over the valley and slopes that climb to 550 meters (1805 ft) at their highest point. The vineyards are very high quality thanks to the extreme continental climate, with a wide temperature variation in summertime. This, combined with the lack of water, favors a slow ripening of the grape, leading to wines with great aromatic intensity.

APPELLATION: DO Costers del Segre

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Cariñena, Garnacha and Syrah

AGING: 15-18 months in French oak barrels (40% new)

Gran Coronas

Gran Coronas represents a monumental turning point in innovation for Familia Torres. Miguel A. Torres went against regional norms, planting Cabernet Sauvignon in Penedès in the 1960s, when most plantings were to local white varieties. Miguel A.'s recognition for producing quality Cabernet Sauvignon brought Gran Coronas to become a benchmark wine for the region.

APPELLATION: DO Penedès

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Cabernet Sauvignon & Tempranillo

AGING: 12 months in French oak barrels (30% new)

Forcada

Forcada, an ancestral varietal, was rediscovered by Familia Torres in the northwestern part of the DO Penedès, in the foothills of the Roca Forcada Mountain, near Vall de Bianya. The variety does very well in the region's clay soils. Grown at 450 meters (1,476 feet), away from the sea's influence, and surprising for its aromatic intensity and freshness.

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Forcada

AGING: 40% new oak, 40% used oak, 20% concrete tanks – each for 3 months

FAMILIA TORRES

PROPERTIES

Pazo das Bruxas

Brilliant yellow with a greenish edge. Intensely aromatic with white floral, citrus and white peach notes. Notable for its clean acidity, which carries through on the mid-palate.

APPELLATION: DO Rías Baixas

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Albariño

AGING: Minimal aging in stainless steels tanks under controlled temperatures

Celeste Reserva

Produced at 895 meters (2,937 feet) above sea level. At this elevation the stars shine brightly in the sky, creating inspiration for the Celeste wines. Celeste Reserva has impressive intensity of color. Intensely fruit-driven and mature with sensual notes of dried plums and an elegant hint of charred oak. The palate is velvety, firm, fleshy and displays astonishing length.

APPELLATION: DO Ribera del Duero

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Tinto Fino (Tempranillo)

AGING: 15 months in French and American oak barrels; followed by 24 months bottle aging before release

Verdeo

Pale gold in color. Fragrant, clean and crisp, with delicate vegetative (fennel), spicy (anise) and passion fruit notes. Silky but firm on the palate with fine fruit acidity.

APPELLATION: DO Rueda

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Verdejo

AGING: On lees for 2 months

Altos Ibéricos Crianza

Altos Ibéricos is Familia Torres first endeavor in the Rioja region. A contemporary red with soft tannins and lots of fruit, exemplary of a new take on La Rioja.

APPELLATION: DOCa Rioja

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
100% Tempranillo

AGING: 12 months French and American oak; partially new

Celeste Crianza

In 2003, at an elevation of 895 meters (2,937 feet), Familia Torres established the winery of Pago del Cielo, just south of Peñafiel, in the heart of Ribera del Duero. Celeste Crianza was the first Spanish wine produced by the Torres family outside of Catalonia.

APPELLATION: DO Ribera del Duero

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
Tinto Fino (Tempranillo)

AGING: 12 months in French and American oak barrels (20% new); followed by 12 months bottle aging before release

Altos Ibéricos Reserva

In 2005, the Torres family expanded into DOCa Rioja and established La Carbonera Winery in the municipality of Labastida, in the heart of Rioja Alavesa. Altos Ibéricos Reserva is dark cherry red in color. Intense aromas of black fruit against a toasty, spicy backdrop. Light, silky and subtle on the palate.

APPELLATION: DOCa Rioja

VARIETAL COMPOSITION:
100% Tempranillo

AGING: 18 months in oak barrels (8% new); followed by 18 months bottle aging before release

SUSTAINABLE PRACTICES

Environmental sustainability sits at the heart of every decision made at Familia Torres. Fourth generation proprietor of Familia Torres, Miguel A. Torres has long been committed to leading the family estates and the broader winemaking community to new heights surrounding environmental conservation. Miguel's intrinsic drive to leave a cleaner environmental footprint for the generations that follow, led to the establishment of Torres & Earth, in 2008.

During its infancy, the company-wide initiative spurred a new benchmark in sustainable winemaking with goals set to reduce carbon emissions across every aspect of the business by 30% by 2020. Rigorous implementation of renewable energy and innovative winemaking saw the company exceed their emissions targets far earlier than expected. A continuous commitment to reinvest 11% of annual profits into environmental initiatives quickly transformed Familia Torres from a top Spanish wine producer into an industry leader in the fight against climate change. Notable measures include a reduction in bottle weight, putting 125 electric and hybrid vehicles into its ecosystem of operations across Spain, building solar, geothermal and biomass fueled wineries and installing innovative wastewater management systems.

In 2019, Familia Torres formed an organization among passionate world-wide wineries, called The International Wineries for Climate Action (IWCA). The coalition of like-minded leaders share the vision of a cleaner future for global winemaking. Each winery has so far pledged to reduce their carbon emissions by 50% by 2030 with a longer-term plan to become carbon positive by 2050.

Familia Torres maintains an unwavering, long-term commitment to enriching and preserving the legacy of Spanish winemaking. From cultivating indigenous grape varieties and researching renewable energy to eco-conscious winemaking and carbon sequestering farming practices, Torres states "This is a very long-term project and I'm not sure I'll see the results myself."

RECOGNITION

Today, the value of a wine-growing legacy, the identity of a family business with a long-term vision, the innovative quality that has characterized the winery over its long history, and the commitment to the environment, all coexist within Familia Torres. These are values that have contributed to projecting and consolidating its image in international markets and to earning outstanding acknowledgments.
