BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO POGGIO AL GRANCHIO 2015

ABOUT THE WINERY

A historical producer in Montalcino that dates back to the 1960's, Val di Suga is a pioneer in the production of terroir-driven Brunello and the only producer making three single vineyards in three different estates. Because of the different microclimates, soils and winemaking styles, the wines show different expressions of Sangiovese.

ABOUT THE WINE

Sourced from Val di Suga's "Poggio al Granchio" 18-hectare vineyard on the South-East slope of Montalcino, rich in clay and marl soil (galestro) which delivers wine with minerality and silky tannins. Intense ruby red, the nose is deep and of great complexity, the initial notes of blueberry alternate with notes of cinchona and graphite, which leave room for intense notes of blood. The mouth is overcome by dense, elegant and juicy tannins that make it rocky but incredibly balanced. The flint return defines and allows us to recognize the exact minerality of the slope from which it was conceived. A Brunello that will be talked about for many years to come...!

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Val di Suga is the only producer in Montalcino that makes three different expressions of Brunello from three different single-vineyards
- The estates are located in the North-East (Vigna del Lago), South-West (Vigna Spuntali) and South-East (Poggio al Granchio)
- Because of the different micro-climate and soil in each site, Val di Suga uses a different approach in terms of viticulture, winemaking and analytical research

TECHNICAL DETAILS

and then 18 months in bottle | Alcohol: 14% | TA: 5.49 g/L

"...The 2015 Brunello di Montalcino Poggio al Granchio comes from a sun-kissed 18-hectare plot located at the southeastern side of the appellation that also sees very cool nights, thanks to the soft breezes and diurnal shifts that come off the nearby Monte Amiata. You can see a sketch of this vineyard in the little drawing on the front label. Compared to the other wines in this series, this wine is distinguished by a thickly textured mouthfeel and warm aromas of dark plum and blackberry. That acidity comes in at the end to give the wine linearity and length."
