

✝ PEYRASSOL

2019 Le Clos Peyrassol Rosé AOP Côtes de Provence

THE WINE ADVOCATE
Joe Czerwinski, May 2020

“2019 Cotes de Provence Rose Le Clos Peyrassol offers up scents of crushed stone, garrigue, white peach and lime, all tinged with tart red berries. It’s medium-bodied on the palate, with a silky-wet stone feel and a lingering finish that seems to build in red fruit intensity while remaining citrusy and refreshing at the same time. One of the best wines in this year’s tasting.” — Joe Czerwinski, May 2020

2019 Chateau Peyrassol Rosé AOP Côtes de Provence

THE WINE ADVOCATE
Joe Czerwinski, May 2020

“Peyrassol’s 2019 Cotes de Provence Rose is a strident, intense rosé that demands attention. It hints at passion fruit at first, then broadens out to include notes of pink grapefruit, red currant and even a touch of peach, but it always retains a sinewy structure and bright acidity. It’s medium-bodied, with a silky texture in the mouth and a long, mouthwatering finish. Yum!” — Joe Czerwinski, May 2020

90 WINE ENTHUSIAST

2019 Cuvée des Commandeurs Rosé AOP Côtes de Provence

JAMES SUCKLING
James Suckling, June 2020

“Very prevalent cantaloupe character on the nose and palate with hints of flowers and red apples. The palate is fruity and flavorful with slightly bruised pears on the finish. Drink now.”
