ABOUT THE WINERY

Commanderie de Peyrassol is located in the foothills of the Massif des Maures mountain range, 10 miles from the Mediterranean Sea, between Cannes and Marseille. Existing as a winery for almost 800 years, Commanderie de Peyrassol has thrived as a sanctuary for gathering travelers, all the while holding true to its values of hospitality and conviviality. The estate consists of 1,000 hectares with 95 hectares planted to vineyards cultivated on dry, rocky clay and limestone soils. The age of the vines, the rocky terrain, and the hot, dry climate all impart character to the low yielding vines. With effort from the current owner, Philippe Austruy, to revitalize the estates centuries old reputation, Peyrassol is now, more than ever, synonymous with great wines and celebrated generosity across the world.

ABOUT THE WINE

With a long history of producing Provençal wines, the Commanderie started to develop wines partly sourced from neighboring properties. Selecting the terroirs, the varietals and specific plots allows the winery to remain true to the Peyrassol DNA. Vinification is done traditionally, in stainless steel vats and at a controlled temperature, after a delicate pneumatic pressing.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- All Peyrassol rosé are produced using the direct press method, fruit is harvested and vinified with complete consideration for the Peyrassol rosé style
- This wine is focused on readiness to drink, freshness and balance, while offering a step up from Croix de Peyrassol
- The wine spends several months on fine lees, adding texture, while allowing the aromatic freshness to persist
