PRESS	"...Gosset's cellar master Odilon de Varine, presides over a remarkably consistent range of powerful but elegantly austere Champagnes that emphasize, as he puts it, the region's 'mineral side.' No doubt the systematic prevention of malolactic fermentation plays an important role in the house's tightly wound, incisive style..." — William Kelley, Wine Advocate, 2019	"...in their singular focus, they've accomplished mastery. Old vines, prime lieu-dit vineyards across Moulin-à-Vent's wind-blasted ridge, and a commitment to traditional winemaking means their wines are singular and gorgeous." — Kevin Day from Opening a Bottle, May 2020	"Regarded as one of the most significant producers in the Rhône valley" and " a vineyard producing wines that have been awarded Super Rhône status by the world's top critics." — Richard Siddle, The Buyer, Jan 2017	"...the wines from Clau de Nell are remarkably structured, terroir driven and age-worthy." — Joe D'Angelo, International Wine Report, January 2015	"The Coulons are among the most forward thinking in terms of their viticulture and winemaking." — James Molesworth, Wine Spectator "Reference point Châteauneuf du Pape producer." "This estate consistently makes one of the most classic, age worthy whites in the appellation." — Jeb Dunnuck

PRESS	First winery from the Chianti Classico D.O.C.G. to crack the top 3 of Wine Spectator's annual ranking — 2018	"Whatever the occasion and whatever the location, the idea is to find reds that are picnic-table casual, and affordable enough to have several bottles on hand. In Tuscany, that might be a Chianti or a deeper, darker cabernet sauvignon from the coast — Prelius, Castello di Volpaia's Maremma winery, makes a terrific example." — Wine & Spirits, 2014	"Ravera...is yielding some of the purest and most exciting wines in the Barolo region today. The Elvio Cogno Ravera is a benchmark example." — Wine Spectator, 2020	"Catarratto is perhaps the most widely planted white grape on Sicily, but it does not have a great reputation... But what if it was grown conscientiously and made with care? Feudo Montoni farms organically in central Sicily and makes a handful of excellent wines, and I'd say this is a fine rendition: dry, lively and profoundly herbal." — Eric Asimov, January 2021	"Gianluca Bisol, president of Bisol, is a wine pioneer in the Prosecco Superiore hills and beyond." — Wine Spectator, 2020

BRAND	MAELI	NIKÀ BENT EL RIAH	TENUTA SETTE CIELI	VAL DI SUGA MONTALCINO	VENISSA
ORIGIN	Veneto, Italy	Sicily, Italy	Tuscany, Italy	Tuscany, Italy	Veneto, Italy
KEY SELLING POINTS	Maeli is located in the Colli Euganei, which was established as a regional park in 1989. White chalky soils from volcanic origins produce wines with incredible structure and minerality The winery is most famous for Fior d'Arancio Colli Euganei (Yellow Muscat, or Moscate Giallo), which was elevated to a DOCG in 2010, the same year that Winemaker Elisa Dilavanzo joined the estate Winery was the first to produce a classic method brut sparkling entirely from Yellow Muscat Maeli is 100% sustainable and advocates for the versatility of Moscato Giallo, producing one still and three sparkling wines entirely from the mineral-driven Yellow Muscat grown in the steep slopes of the Euganean Hills	Nikà is a project created by Nicolo Mascheroni Stianti of Castello di Volpaia Pantelleria is a small island located 30 miles from Tunisia, formed from an ancient volcano Strong winds make winemaking possible in a very hot area Pantelleria comes from the Arab "Bent El Riah" that translates to "Daughter of the Wind" Produced from ancient vines of Zibibbo (Muscat of Alexandria), grown in a unique bush training called "Alberello"	The black slate soil of Monteverdi Marittimo helps concentrate the fruit and the diurnal temperature shift helps retain freshness Due to the high-altitude, fruit ripens almost a month later compared to the valley, making wines that are more balanced and fresh, in contrast with the warm, high alcohol wines of Bolgheri Led by Elena Pozzolini, a young and energetic winemaker, with international experience	Val di Suga is the only producer in Montalcino that makes three different expressions of Brunello from three different single-vineyards The estates are located in the North-East (Vigna del Lago), South-West (Vigna Spuntali) and South-East (Poggio al Granchio) Because of the different microclimates and soils in each site, Val di Suga uses a different approach in terms of viticulture, winemaking and analytical research	Winemaking in area goes back 2,000 years A symbol of heroic viticulture, Venissa is the result of an epic effort that led the Bisol family to recover the historic Dorona, a rare native grape of Venice, which almost disappeared after the catastrophic floods of 1966 Project of Venissa begain with Gianluca Bisol's discovery of the Dorona vines in 2002 and contines with Matteo Bisol's quest to return the Dorona vine back to Venice and prove that extraordinary world-class wine can thrive in even the most impossible, challenging terroirs Every bottle features gold leaf labels applied by hand as a homage to Venice's past
