CUMBERLAND RESERVE PINOT NOIR 2020

ABOUT THE WINERY

Bergström Wines, a first-generation American family business, is one of the most unique and lauded domaines in the Willamette Valley. Dr. John Bergström's Swedish heritage and the love he developed for the Pacific Northwest are the roots of this estate. In 1999, John and his son, Josh, established Bergström Wines. Today, Josh and Caroline, his wife and business partner, are celebrating 24 years as biodynamic growers of estate Pinot Noir and Chardonnay vineyards on the finest appellations within Oregon's Willamette Valley.

ABOUT THE WINE

This wine is named for the road where the Bergstrom family grew up in Portland, Oregon. Cumberland Reserve is the epitome of the Bergström style: the expression of a unique vintage's character combined with the perfect marriage of spice, mineral, and fresh fruit flavors. Whole cluster fermentation is completed in open top, temperature controlled, stainless steel fermentation tanks utilizing solely native yeast where possible. The wine then spends 12 months in barrel before bottling.

KEY SELLING POINTS

"...a medium ruby-purple color and opens with some flinty tones over cranberries, bitter citrus and amaro aromas. Grainy and fresh, the medium-bodied palate offers crunchy fruits and fine earthy accents, finishing long, uplifted and spicy."
