

GAJA FAMILY

CA' MARCANDA

2020 CAMARCANDA BOLGHERI DOP

ABOUT THE WINERY

Ca'Marcanda, Gaja's estate in Bolgheri, was established in 1996 propelled by Angelo's ambition to challenge himself with Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot.

The name Ca'Marcanda comes from the Piedmontese dialect that can be translated to "The House of Endless Negotiations".

The estate spans across 300 acres of vineyards, divided between Bolgheri (170 acres, bought in 1996 where the winery is located) and Bibbona (120 acres, gradually bought in the last 20 years).

ABOUT THE WINE

Flagship wine from the Ca'Marcanda Winery, is entirely produced using estate owned grapes coming from the Castagneto Carducci area. Pinnacle of the production, this wine represents the elegant style of the Gaja Family in Bolgheri.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Most iconic wine from the Ca'Marcanda estate.
- Nose with flowery, red fruit and root notes, typical of the Mediterranean scrub. The taste is rounded, with a dense texture and a remarkable mineral character.
- Planted on white soil rich in limestone, firm clay and stones.
- The nature typical of white soil and the abundance of stones are essential for the wine solid and complex structure.

JEB DUNNUCK

"Attractive out of the gate and is sweet with its perfume of purple fruits and red currant, violets, menthol, rosemary, and wet stone. It is full bodied, though, and has lift and charming appeal now. While it is ripe and plush with raspberry, crushed red flowers, and sweet cedar, it retains its benchmark notes of saline earth and herbs. This wine is incredibly expressive and delicious now."
