ABOUT THE WINERY

“ONE ESTATE – ONE FAMILY” | Wine runs deep in the Faiveley family’s blood, as they have been deeply rooted in Bourgogne, its history, and its culture for almost two centuries now. Their values have remained unchanged over the last seven generations and are based on a deep attachment to the Bourgogne region, an instinctive passion for the terroirs, and an innate respect for man and his work. Today they are one of the largest classified vineyard owners in Burgundy, with holdings spreading from the Côte de Nuits to the Côte Chalonnaise, featuring polished, collectible reds and whites with exceptionally high ratings. The majority of Domaine Faiveley’s vineyards are located in prestigious Cru appellations like Cote Chalonnaise, Cote de Beaune, and Cote de Nuits. Domaine Faiveley also manages to make about 80% of its wines with grapes grown in its own vineyards. The estate produces various wines across the appellation that include some of the finest Burgundy Grand Cru and Premier Cru wines.

ABOUT THE WINE

This Côte Chalonnaise village takes its name from the God Mercury (God of trade). Mercurey is intersected by the Agrippa road which joined Chalon-sur-Saône with Autun in the Roman era. The wines of Mercurey have made this village’s reputation known throughout the world. Mercurey is one of Bourgogne’s largest winemaking communes with over 600 ha of vines.
