

BIONDI-SANTI

TENUTA "GREPPO,"

ROSSO DI MONTALCINO DOC 2019

This wine was originally known as the Biondi-Santi "White Label Brunello", but changed its name in 1983, when the Rosso di Montalcino DOC was established. It reflects the signature style of our high-altitude vineyards with a vibrant freshness and a distinct fruitiness which makes it thoroughly enjoyable at a young age.

2019 VINTAGE NOTES

A rainy and cold spring with a slow growth of shoots and late flowering preceded a hot and dry June and July. Around mid July northern winds cooled off the temperatures for some days. August was hot and dry, but also brought rainshowers at the end of the month, providing ideal ripening conditions in the last days leading up to harvest. Picking started on September 14th.

ORIGIN

The grapes for the Rosso di Montalcino 2019 were selected from the following estate vineyards: Tenuta Greppo, located to the south-east of Montalcino, Ribusuoli, located just below Tenuta Greppo and Pievecchia, located to the north of the town of Montalcino.

TASTING NOTES

A lovely encounter of flowers and red berry fruits, the Rosso di Montalcino 2019 reveals fresh, energetic notes of cherries, blood oranges, pomegranate, violets and honey suckle, followed by balsamic sensations of kitchen herbs, liquorice root and menthol. The nose and palate are fully aligned as the crunchy tannins and lively acidity blend in with this Rosso's impressive, levigated fruity core, leading us towards a savoury finish with long-lingering mineral notes.
